INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

The Hammond Historical Law Collection of which the following is a catalogue, has been donated to the State University of Iowa, by Mrs. William G. Hammond, in accordance with the wishes of her husband, expressed within a few days of his death, which occurred at St. Louis, on April 12, 1894. Under the terms of the gift the collection is to be kept together in cases specially provided for that purpose in the Law Library, and to remain there as a memorial of Dr. Hammond and of his connection with the Law Department as its Chancellor, from the organization of the Department in 1868 until 1881.

The collection comprises twelve hundred and thirty-seven volumes, relating principally to the civil law and to the history of the common law. In the latter branch it covers the legal institutions of the Teutonic tribes in general, and of the Anglo-Saxons in particular, as well as the early period of the developments of legal institutions in England.

Dr. Hammond, while preparing his edition of Blackstone's Commentaries, collected copies of all the editions of that work published during the author's life-time, and this rare collection is included in the gift.

In the Library is kept a card catalogue of the whole collection.
